COCKTAILS

All Cocktails €10.00

Rebujito (Non-alcoholic option available)

Rebujito is the diminutive of rebujo, which can mean a 'tangle' or a 'badly wrapped package'. But this cocktail is far from a mess: This light, delicate cocktail combines the dry flavour of sherry with the bitterness of lemon and lime soda, fresh mint and floral flavours of elderflower to create an elegant and refreshing cocktail.

Flamenco Martini

Not your average Martini. Gin, lemon juice, passionfruit and egg white are shaken, not stirred, to create this slightly sweet, refreshing cocktail.

Flip 43

Bacardi Oakheart, egg and liqueur 43 create this creamy and indulgent cocktail that tastes like holiday heaven.

Ginger Fizz

The Gin Fizz, which is a close relation to the Tom Collins, has been satisfying bar patrons for more than a century. Ginger and maraschino cherries add another level of freshness to this iconic drink.

Elderflower Martini (Non-alcoholic option available)

The aperitif's purpose is to stimulate one's appetite and prepare for the inevitable joys to come. This Cocktail is a modern twist on a classic aperitif. Hendricks gin shaken with elderflower liqueur (St.Germain) and fresh cucumber create this refreshing cocktail which can be enjoyed at anytime.

Pears & Apples

Pear vodka mixed with melon liqueur, pure apple and lemon juice are shaken with egg white to create this tart but sweet cocktail.

Powerscourt

A flavourful mix of raspberry vodka, pomegranate, fresh rosemary, a touch of lemon juice and egg white. Rosemary and Vodka are meant to be together with the spirits flavour taking instantly to the herbal infusions while raspberry and pomegranate add sweetness and the lemon adds a slightly bitter note creating a perfectly balanced and delicious cocktail.

Devil's Lemonade

Whiskey drinkers have likely heard about the 'Angel's Share', the amount of liquid that evaporates while aging in a barrel. Well, Jim Beam have termed the liquid that remains in the barrels, after they've 'dumped' the bourbon, as the Devil's Cut and we've used it to make Devil's Lemonade; a simple mix of Jim Beam Devils cut bourbon and fizzy lemonade.

Chavez Secret

Dictador rum is mixed with caramel and cinnamon liqueur and then shaken with egg white to recreate the favourite drink of one of the worlds most famous dictators. Do you want to know the secret?

Rose Spritz

These breezy cocktails are the kind of thing you can drink all afternoon. Beautifully balanced with a soft sweetness and the wonderful harmony of delicious German vermouth, Grand Marnier and tonic, which forms a refreshing and aromatic alternative to the classic G&T.

NOTnegroni

An Aperol Negroni is a light, refreshing take on a classic negroni that uses Aperol, instead of Campari, to add bright summer flavours and a luscious orange colour before adding a drop of Maraschino and Carpano Vermouth.

SourBerry (Non-alcoholic option available)

A gorgeous gin sour cocktail made with blueberries. Refreshing, pretty, and the perfect balance of sweet and tart.

Vanilla Margarita

Mezcal Silver infused with vanilla beans, mixed with agave syrup and fresh lime juice. Served straight up or on the rocks. The Vanilla Margarita is simple yet sophisticated with a deliriously good sweet - sour tang.
